

Edward J Hogg

Edward J. Hogg was a veteran of World War II. He worked for many years at the Philadelphia Naval Yard.

He was active in the Chester County Detachment for many years. In 1991, he was selected the Detachment Marine of the Year. He was a member of the MCL Fun and Honor Society, the Military Order of the Devil Dogs.

He marched with the Detachment Color Guard and participated in many other activities.

The scholarship was established soon after Ed passed away.

He is survived by a daughter and son-in-law.

*Ed as a rifleman in the Color Guard,
Marine Memorial Sunday*